James "Ace" Goddard

Haxtun resident James "Ace" Goddard, 96, died Dec. 3, 1998, at Haxtun hospital.

On Feb. 4, 1902, Ace was born on the family ranch three miles north of Paoli to Mary Elizabeth (Helm) and Samuel Goddard. He was the youngest of eight children. He attended the country school north of Paoli and farmed with the family.

Ace married Hallie Decker in Sterling on July 9,1924. Shortly after their marriage, they bought a restaurant in Haxtun, and operated it for a couple of years. Then he went to work at Longmont Mill and Elevator, Longmont. In 1929, he returned to Haxtun and worked for Haxtun Cooperative. He went to work for Clark Chevrolet in 1933. Ace also studied for, and obtained, a real estate license, which he held until 1992.

During World War II he was employed by Continental Airlines in Denver. After the war, Ace returned to Haxtun and resumed his career in real estate sales.

Ace enjoyed being with people, fishing and hunting.

Goddard joined Haxtun Lodge #164 of the Ancient Free and Accepted Masons on Feb. 11, 1930. He was master of the lodge in 1942, received his 50-year pin on March 25, 1980, and, at the time of his death, was the oldest member of the lodge.

Ace is survived by his sister Mary Hill, Haxtun, nephews, other relatives, and many friends.

He was preceded in death by his wife Hallie; his parents; and brothers Clifford Goddard, Charlie Goddard, Jerry Goddard, Glenn Goddard, Ray Goddard and Roy Goddard.

Funeral services were held Dec. 5, 1998, at the United Methodist Church, Haxtun, with Reverend Thomas Cross officiating. Burial followed at Haxtun Cemetery.

THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside still waters:
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in paths of righteousness for His names sake..
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy Staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
And I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever...

VERNON PYLES FAMILY

I am Vernon Pyles of Pine Grove, WV. I was born 3 Jan. 1918 at Silver Hill and have lived most of my life in Wetzel County. My father, James Blaine Pyles was born and lived at Silver Hill and my mother, Jessie Lee Calvert Pyles, was also born and lived in Wetzel County. They had six children and I was the eldest of four boys and two girls. Therefore I had to assume responsibilities pretty early in life and had to help along with the younger ones, especially my two sisters, Eloise and Doris.

I went to school at Carneys Run and American Ridge. I received my high school diploma at New Martinsville. I enlisted in the Army and was among the first to leave Wetzel

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Pyles

Co. in Jan. 1941. There were 16 of us that left Wetzel County at that time. Most all of us were together for fifteen to eighteen months, then were sent many different ways. I was in seven different countries of Europe during WWII and received three battle stars. I was discharged 18 Nov. 1945.

9 April 1942, I married Garnet Lemasters, the second daughter of Walter and Lula Poole Lemasters. Her parents were born at Wileyville and lived in Wetzel Co. most of their lives.

To us were born three daughters; Donna; Mary and Carol. They all attended Valley High School at Pine Grove, WV. Donna then went to B. M. Spurr School of Nursing at Reynolds Memorial Hospital and worked as a practical nurse. She is now married to Donald Westen and lives in Moundsville, WV.

Mary attended beauty college at Parkersburg, WV and worked at Paden City as a beautician. She married David Kemp of Paden City and they have three children: Alicia Ann; Michael David and Erica Dawn.

Carol attended W.V.N.C.C. and works as an R. N. at the New Martinsville Health Care Center. She is married to Edwin Livingston, Jr. and lives on a farm at Middlebourne, WV, with their daughter Jessica.

We are members of the Church of Christ, of which I am one of the elders at Pine Grove.

I worked for the Pennzoil Co. for 23 years. We are both retired now and we enjoy camping, fishing and visiting with our children, grandchildren, friends and neighbors. Submitted by Veron Pyles

JOHN PYLES FAMILY

John and Johannah Pyles came to Wetzel County from Green County Pennsylvania in or near the year 1818, at that time the territory was in the state of Virginia. They were Pennsylvania Dutch and traveled to Wetzel County by covered wagon and a team of oxen. They settled in a log cabin near New Martinsville. John was a farmer and Boot-maker. They were the parents of seven sons - William, John, Joseph, Eli, Felix, Thomas and James.

My grandfather, Eli Pyles was born in Pennsylvania on October 10, 1811 and was a small boy when they came to Wetzel County, so there is no definite date of their arrival here, where many of their decendants still live.

Eli married Jerusha Smith and they were parents of eleven children.

When the Civil War started Eli and four of his sons enlisted in the Union Army at New Martinsville on October 10, 1861. Eli was fifty years old the day he enlisted but told the recruiters he was forty so he could go with his sons. They traveled to Wheeling by river boat where they were inducted. They marched with other recruits over the Suspension Bridge and left for the battle front. They all survived the War, but Eli was captured at Winchester, Virginia and spent six months in Belle Isle Prison, where many prisoners died of starvation and exposure. He was an exchange prisoner and arrived back in New Martinsville by river boat in November, 1862. He was carried from the boat by the escort soldiers and placed on his horse. Jerusha, my grandmother, walked beside him and held him in the saddle while Amos, one of the younger sons led the horse up the hill (McEldowney Avenue) to their home where he spent the winter in front of the fire place recuperating and being nursed by the family.

Pearson the youngest of the brothers in the War became a Sharpshooter in the Army. He returned home a restless young man who finally reinlisted to go West and fight the Indians. He later married and lived in New York.

My parents, James Irvin and Lizabeth Pollett Pyles were the parents of nine children - Blanche, Oliver, Michael, Luella, Ethel, Orion, Mabel, Frances and Robert Guy.

The seven sons of John and Johannah as far as the family history is known all married and raised families in or near Wetzel County.

JOHN PYLES FAMILY

John and Johannah Pyles came to Wetzel County from Green County Pennsylvania in or near the year 1818, at that time the territory was in the state of Virginia. They were Pennsylvania Dutch and traveled to Wetzel County by covered wagon and a team of oxen. They settled in a log cabin near New Martinsville. John was a farmer and Boot-maker. They were the parents of seven sons - William, John, Joseph, Eli, Felix, Thomas and James.

My grandfather, Eli Pyles was born in Pennsylvania on October 10, 1811 and was a small boy when they came to Wetzel County, so there is no definite date of their arrival here, where many of their decendants still live.

Eli married Jerusha Smith and they were parents of eleven children.

When the Civil War started Eli and four of his sons enlisted in the Union Army at New Martinsville on October 10, 1861. Eli was fifty years old the day he enlisted but told the recruiters he was forty so he could go with his sons. They traveled to Wheeling by river boat where they were inducted. They marched with other recruits over the Suspension Bridge and left for the battle front. They all survived the War, but Eli was captured at Winchester, Virginia and spent six months in Belle Isle Prison, where many prisoners died of starvation and exposure. He was an exchange prisoner and arrived back in New Martinsville by river boat in November, 1862. He was carried from the boat by the escort soldiers and placed on his horse. Jerusha, my grandmother, walked beside him and held him in the saddle while Amos, one of the younger sons led the horse up the hill (McEldowney Avenue) to their home where he spent the winter in front of the fire place recuperating and being nursed by the family.

Pearson the youngest of the brothers in the War became a Sharpshooter in the Army. He returned home a restless young man who finally reinlisted to go West and fight the Indians. He later married and lived in New York.

My parents, James Irvin and Lizabeth Pollett Pyles were the parents of nine children - Blanche, Oliver, Michael, Luella, Ethel, Orion, Mabel, Frances and Robert Guy.

The seven sons of John and Johannah as far as the family history is known all married and raised families in or near Wetzel County.

JOHN PYLES FAMILY

John and Johannah Pyles came to Wetzel County from Green County Pennsylvania in or near the year 1818, at that time the territory was in the state of Virginia. They were Pennsylvania Dutch and traveled to Wetzel County by covered wagon and a team of oxen. They settled in a log cabin near New Martinsville. John was a farmer and Boot-maker. They were the parents of seven sons - William, John, Joseph, Eli, Felix, Thomas and James.

My grandfather, Eli Pyles was born in Pennsylvania on October 10, 1811 and was a small boy when they came to Wetzel County, so there is no definite date of their arrival here, where many of their decendants still live.

Eli married Jerusha Smith and they were parents of eleven children.

When the Civil War started Eli and four of his sons enlisted in the Union Army at New Martinsville on October 10, 1861. Eli was fifty years old the day he enlisted but told the recruiters he was forty so he could go with his sons. They traveled to Wheeling by river boat where they were inducted. They marched with other recruits over the Suspension Bridge and left for the battle front. They all survived the War, but Eli was captured at Winchester, Virginia and spent six months in Belle Isle Prison, where many prisoners died of starvation and exposure. He was an exchange prisoner and arrived back in New Martinsville by river boat in November, 1862. He was carried from the boat by the escort soldiers and placed on his horse. Jerusha, my grandmother, walked beside him and held him in the saddle while Amos, one of the younger sons led the horse up the hill (McEldowney Avenue) to their home where he spent the winter in front of the fire place recuperating and being nursed by the family.

Pearson the youngest of the brothers in the War became a Sharpshooter in the Army. He returned home a restless young man who finally reinlisted to go West and fight the Indians. He later married and lived in New York.

My parents, James Irvin and Lizabeth Pollett Pyles were the parents of nine children - Blanche, Oliver, Michael, Luella, Ethel, Orion, Mabel, Frances and Robert Guy.

The seven sons of John and Johannah as far as the family history is known all married and raised families in or near Wetzel County.

The YOHO Newsletter

April, 1994 | Yoho Family Association Newsletter | Volume 3, Number 1

Greetings From The Yoho Family Association!

Thank you for supporting the Yoho Family Association over the past year. The response to the Newsletter has been wonderful and we plan to continue publishing the it. We hope you will enjoy this year's Newsletter which has a little something for everyone.

We want to thank everyone who donated money in support of the Newsletter and Reunion. Listed below are those individual who donated money in support of the Yoho Family Association.

We have decided that we will not require subscriptions for the newsletter, but rather will mail it to everyone on the Yoho mailing list so as to notify all persons on the list of the annual reunion. However, we can only continue doing this with your donations and support. If you are interested in making a donation please see the back page of the Newsletter for information on how to do so.

Our mailing list is quickly growing and now includes over five hundred addresses of Yohos across the county. Please remember to inform us if you move, change your address or the address on the current newsletter is incorrect. We need your help in keeping our mailing list current. Also, let us know the addresses of others in your family so that we can include them on the mailing list. If you would like to receive a copy of the Yoho mailing list, send us a small donation to cover the cost and we will gladly provide you with one.

A special thanks to all who attended the 1993 Yoho Reunion held in New Martinsville on June 19, 1993. It was a big success, and we believe everyone had a great time. It was great to see some new faces at the reunion, and we hope that those of you who attended for the first time will plan to come back this year.

The 1994 Yoho Reunion is scheduled for Saturday, June18, 1994 at Bruce Park in New Martinsville, West Virginia. We plan to have another silent auction at this year's reunion so please bring a craft, quilt, copy of your genealogy research or other item to donate. If you can't attend, write us a letter and we will read it to everyone in attendance. We hope to see everyone at the reunion this year.

Once again, thanks go out to all who have donated their time, money and support to make this past year a great success for the Yoho Family Association. A special thanks goes to Thad Eller who each year is responsible for reserving the Big Shelter at Bruce Park for the annual reunion. We look forward to a great 1994 Yoho Reunion. Thanks! TRACING THE EARLIEST ROOTS OF THE YOHO FAMILY:

A Summary Of How We Are All Related.

Editor's Note: A summary by Robert L. Coffield of information provided by Denver Yoho of Gallipolis, Ohio; Hugh Yoho of Sunland, California and others who have contributed to tracing the Yoho family heritage. This summary is an attempt to bring together all the Yohos and their descendants and show how all Yohos are descended from one common ancestor. Anyone related to the Yohos should be able to recognize their branch of the Yoho family.

The name Yoho can be found as early as 1472 in Europe where it was spelled Joho, the German J being pronounced as a Y. Research indicates that the American Yohos are descended from John Micheal Joho (born circa 1678 - died between 1729-1735), a meat cutter of Sulzthal Alsace (now Germany) who was married to Susanna Gelker.

Among the children born to the marriage of John Micheal and Susanna were John Conrad (born 1705 - died March 29, 1729), Johannas (born 1712, confirmed 1729 - died after 1795), Anna Maria Margaretha (born 1714, confirmed 1729) and John Michael (born circa 1718 - died Jan. 27, 1735.)

It is believed that John Micheal's and Susanna's son Johannas Yoho was a resident of Lembach Parrish, Alsace. He was a wooden shoemaker and married Susanne Catherine Lau (born circa 1714) on March 1, 1735. Susanne was the daughter of Theobald Lau, a blacksmith in Alsace. One child, Maria Christine, was born October 20, 1735 and died eight months later in Mattstall, Alsace.

According to "Thirty Thousand names of Immigrants Swiss, Dutch and German 1727-1776, ships and dates of arrival at Philadelphia" by Professor I. Daniel Rupp, among the passengers of the ship "Snow Two Sister" from Rotterdam, last from Cowes in England on September 9, 1738 were Johannes Joho and Susanne Joho. The manifest lists the passengers as "Palatine" passengers.

The Palatines were lands ruled by the Count Palatine of the Holy Roman Empire. The lands were located along the modern day border of Germany and France near the Rhine River (also know as Alsace). Throughout their history the people of the Palatinate were religiously persecuted and many emigrated to America (many of the early German settlers, including the Pennsylvania Dutch, were refugees from the Palatinate.) This may have been a reason why Johannes and Susanne decided to travel to America.

Denver Yoho concludes that Johannas was born in Alsace, migrated to Philadelphia in 1738, lived near Winchester, Virginia around 1752, moved to southwestern Pennsylvania (Greene County, Pennsylvania) around 1761 and finally settled along Fish Creek, Ohio County, Virginia (now Marshall County, West Virginia) where he died and was probably buried in Yoho Cemetery near Graysville, West Virginia. Following is a listing of persons determined by Denver Yoho and others to be the nine children of Johannas and Susanne who were born in America, although only documented proof of this connection exists for only three of those persons listed.

Maria Christinia Yoho, who was born March 14, 1740 in Conewago County, Pennsylvania (now York and Adams County, Pennsylvania) and was baptized on May 22, 1740.

Eva Catarina (Catherine) Yoho Lemley (born May 26, 1741, baptized June 25, 1741 - died Nov. 5, 1825), who married George Lemley (born 1742 - died June 1, 1813) in Greene County, Pennsylvania. They had eleven children: John Lemley, Jacob Lemley, Isaac Lemley, Mary Lemley Bower, George Lemley, Peter Lemley, Catherine Lemley (Frakes) Six, Susannah Lemley Liming, Issac Lemley, Rachel Lemley Willey, Samuel Lemley and David Lemley .

Peter Yoho (born 1745 - died 1823), married to Margaret Baker (born circa 1761 - died circa 1848) who lived in Washington County, Pennsylvania; Staunton, Virginia and Ohio/ Marshall County, West Virginia. Peter was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. Peter and Margaret had eleven children: John Yoho, Margaret Yoho Archer, Mary Yoho Gatts, Henry Yoho (see photo above), Samuel Yoho, Peter Yoho, Jacob Yoho, Lewis Yoho, Isaac Yoho, William Yoho and Elizabeth Yoho Baker.

John Yoho (born circa 1746 - death date not known), who is believed to have married, although research has not determined his wife's name. John is believed to have bought land near Winchester, Virginia in 1766 from Lord Fairfax. John was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and was stationed at Fort Pitt in 1777. John is believed to be the ancestor of Yoho families that presently live in the Lawrence County, Pennsylvania area. John's children include Jacob Yoho and likely other children, however we are unaware of anyone who has fully researched this family branch.

George Yoho (birth date not known - killed by indians circa 1795 in Ohio County, West Virginia), who Denver and others have concluded was never married. He bought 400 acres in Fayette County, Pennsylvania on February 4, 1794 which was sold for taxes on December 10, 1822. Denver speculates that if the story that George was killed by Indians in 1795 is true, then the reason for the sale of his land in 1822 must have been his failure to return from West Virginia and pay his taxes.

Henry Yoho (born 18 miles from Winchester, Virginia 1752 - died March 12, 1845), married to Catherine Baker (born circa 1761 - died circa 1826) and lived at Fish Creek, Marshall County, West Virginia; Monongalia County, West Virginia; and Tyler County, West Virginia. Henry was a private in in the Revolutionary War from 1776-77. Henry and Catherine had seven children: George Yoho, Mary Yoho Garner, Nancy Ann Yoho Whykert (see the story on the Great Horse Race), Elizabeth Yoho Brown, Rebecca Yoho Gatts, Margaret Yoho Twibell and Rachel Yoho Buchanan. (note: Catherine Baker was the twin sister of Margaret Baker who married Peter Yoho listed above.)

Prudence Yoho Parsons (birth and death dates not known) is believed to have married Vincent Parsons. (note: conflicting Parson's family research concludes that Prudence was the wife of either William or Henry Parsons, who was the father of Vincent Parsons). They were married at a late age, and it appears from records that they did not have any children.

Jacob Yoho (born July 8, 1765 - died August 24, 1851 in Guernsey County, Ohio), married to Margaret Dailey (born January 12, 1775 - died August 1, 1846). Jacob brought his family from Vintondale (Cambria County, Pennsylvania) and went to Noble Co., Ohio (now Guernsey Co., Ohio), Wayne Township where they settled on Wills Creek in 1808. They had twelve children: James Yoho, Jacob Yoho, Mary Yoho Carpenter, Barbara Yoho Hague, Elizabeth Yoho Watson, Ellen Yoho Watson, John Yoho (see the story on Benjamin Franklin Yoho), Sarah Yoho Wilson, Margaret Yoho Gilmore, Nancy Yoho Morgan, William Henry Yoho and Peter Yoho.

Barbara Yoho Bradford (born February 23, 1765 - died March 10, 1816 in Greene County, Pennsylvania), married to James Bradford (born January 1, 1754 - died April 18, 1822). They had ten children: John Bradford, Robert Bradford, James Bradford, Jacob Bradford, Henry Bradford, William Bradford, Mary Bradford Pethtel, Margaret Bradford Bowers, Barbara Bradford Lemley, Ann Bradford Patterson. (note: Some confusion exists; Barbara may have been the granddaughter of John Yoho and Susanna instead of their daughter.)

From this original Yoho family we can all trace our roots. Although some of the information may not be entirely accurate it is the best picture that we have of our ancestors, where they came from and how they were (and we are) related. If anyone reading this summary of the Yoho history can add to our information regarding the Yoho family, we would love to hear from you and will include your information in next year's newsletter.

1993 Yoho Reunion Review

June19, 1993 —It was a beautiful and hot day — the type of day that you wish for when you are planning an outdoor event such as a reunion (not like the weather at the 1992 Yoho Reunion which was downright cold.)

Yohos from as far away as South Lyon, Michigan and Norfolk, Virginia and as close as New Martinsville, Proctor and Knob Fork began arriving around eleven o'clock in the morning.

A Recognition of Denver Yoho's Contribution to the Yoho Family

Editor's Note: The following article was submitted by Robert L. Coffield of Charleston, West Virginia with stories told by Denver Yoho of Galipollis, Ohio.

I can not begin to explain to those of you who have never met Denver Yoho the importance that he plays in searching, recording and sustaining the Yoho family, its traditions and history. However, I can tell you a little about him and the impression that he has left on me.

I remember when I first met Denver Yoho at a family reunion. It was when I was just beginning my interest in genealogy. The exact circumstances of that first meeting I don't recall in detail; I do, however, remember my first impression -- that Denver was a person who had spent unimaginable hours collecting, listening, researching and learning who his family was so that he could better understand himself. It was this impression that inspired me to become more involved in understanding my family and their history.

To me, and I am sure many others, Denver has been an inspiration. Every time I meet with him I realize once again how important it is to know your family history and where you came from. Numerous times Denver has shown me that knowing the past is important for knowing the future.

Denver commands an understanding and knowledge of the Yoho family like no other person. Denver is a scholar and a specialist in Yoho history. I am amazed by the wealth of historical knowledge that Denver possesses and shares with those to whom he speaks. Often, when I speak with people who are interested in the Yoho family and can not answer their questions or determine how they are related, I give Denver a call. He always has the answer.

Denver Clayton Yoho was born on June 1, 1913 in Cabell County, West Virginia. He was married to Mary Elizabeth Williams on October 14, 1938 in Gallipolis, Ohio, and they have lived much of their life in and around Gallia County, Ohio. Denver and Mary have two daughters: Sara Alice Northup and Mary Jo Jones.

Denver is the son of Clyde Yoho (1890-1978) and Margaret Estella Stevens Yoho (1892-1956). His grandfather was Jeremiah Yoho (1829-1890) and his grandmother was Hannah Anderson Yoho (1827-1857). Denver's great-grandfather and grandmother were George Yoho (1806-1890) and Rachel Garner Yoho (1808-1868).

Denver served as a Private in Company B, 27th Armored Infantry 9th Armored Division from December 1943 to November 1945. He and his squad were involved in capturing the Lundendorff Bridge at Remagen, Germany on March 7, 1945. As the Germans were forced out of France in 1944 and back across the Rhine River most bridges were destroyed. However, the bridge at Ramagen gave the Allies a link into Germany. Denver's outfit was decorated with the Presidential Distinguished Unit Citation, and in recognition of their valor at the Lundendorff Bridge, the shoulder patch for the Ninth Armored Division carries the bottom tab "Remagen."

Denver has spent a major part of his life searching his and others family roots. In November of 1992, his community celebrated his hard work by honoring him for his "tireless efforts to preserve the history and genealogy of his community" at a program with tributes from various persons. I was struck by the shear volume of research that Denver has been involved in over the years when I saw the back of the evening's program listing the following families that Denver has researched; Black, Blake, Bowman, Bryan, Caldwell, Carson, Clagg, Clark, Clary, Colegrove, Cooper, Cupp, Dailey, Diehl, Dillie, Felix, Ferguson, Freeman, Gebhardt, Grimes, Gross, Hagley, Hanna Jackson, Jarvis, Jefferson, Johnson, Jordon, Miller, Mitchell, Moorem Mount, Mowlin, Perry, Pinkerman, Rider, Roberts, Rollyson, Rutherford, Scarberry, Schultz, Shull, Simpson, Smith, Spurlock, Stevens, Stowasser, Suiter, Thompson, Thorne, Venoy, Webb, White, Williams, and Yoho.

If you have never met Denver Yoho, you should do so. Following are two short excerpts from stories written by Denver about his childhood days:

"Dad (Clyde Yoho) was a baseball pitcher. Different people have told me that he had the potential of being a professional player. I don't know how much my being born influenced him not to play baseball. I was born in a house on the next farm from Grandpa's farm. Dad had been to a baseball game and Mom had gone to Grandmas while he was away. Dad came back on horseback and Mom took two pies she had made, one in each hand and followed him on foot — Dad riding ahead of her.

Being some distance ahead of her when he arrived at the house, he rode up to the door, opening it from horseback and threw his baseball bat and mitt just inside the door. He closed the door and rode on to the barn. By the time Mom got to the door it was dark. She managed to open the door and go into the dark house, only finding the bat on the floor. Still holding the pies she stepped on the baseball bat, which caused her to slip and to bounce to the floor real hard. She saved the pies, but I was born shortly thereafter. I am told I weighed less than four pounds."

"Dad taught nine years at Upper Cabell, Barker Ridge and Lower Creek schools. He taught his last year at Upper Cabell the first year I went to school. There were eight grades in one room. I chased some older boys across the creek getting my feet wet and he whipped me for it. Ralph Caldwell, a boy my own age, told his mother that Clyde Yoho was the meanest man on earth for he had whipped his own boy in school.

My dad was a strict disciplinarian and had punished one of the school trustee's children. The day after punishing the girl, he saw her father, Jasper Dailey, approaching the school with a shotgun. He had some misgivings as to how to handle the situation and being somewhat scared, he met Mr. Dailey at the door, asked him to hang his coat up and said, "Children here is Mr. Dailey, our trustee, we will have him to give us a talk." Mr. Dailey hung up his coat and hat on a hook, set his shotgun in the corner and gave his talk. When the talk was over school was recessed and Mr. Dailey complimented Dad on how good a school he was conducting. He pledged his support especially as to discipline. He then told Dad that he had decided to visit the school and decided it would be prudent to rabbit hunt to and fro... the school."

Maria Christinia Yoho, who was born March 14, 1740 in Conewago County, Pennsylvania (now York and Adams County, Pennsylvania) and was baptized on May 22, 1740.

Eva Catarina (Catherine) Yoho Lemley (born May 26, 1741, baptized June 25, 1741 - died Nov. 5, 1825), who married George Lemley (born 1742 - died June 1, 1813) in Greene County, Pennsylvania. They had eleven children: John Lemley, Jacob Lemley, Isaac Lemley, Mary Lemley Bower, George Lemley, Peter Lemley, Catherine Lemley (Frakes) Six, Susannah Lemley Liming, Issac Lemley, Rachel Lemley Willey, Samuel Lemley and David Lemley .

Peter Yoho (born 1745 - died 1823), married to Margaret Baker (born circa 1761 - died circa 1848) who lived in Washington County, Pennsylvania; Staunton, Virginia and Ohio/ Marshall County, West Virginia. Peter was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. Peter and Margaret had eleven children: John Yoho, Margaret Yoho Archer, Mary Yoho Gatts, Henry Yoho (see photo above), Samuel Yoho, Peter Yoho, Jacob Yoho, Lewis Yoho, Isaac Yoho, William Yoho and Elizabeth Yoho Baker.

John Yoho (born circa 1746 - death date not known), who is believed to have married, although research has not determined his wife's name. John is believed to have bought land near Winchester, Virginia in 1766 from Lord Fairfax. John was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and was stationed at Fort Pitt in 1777. John is believed to be the ancestor of Yoho families that presently live in the Lawrence County, Pennsylvania area. John's children include Jacob Yoho and likely other children, however we are unaware of anyone who has fully researched this family branch.

George Yoho (birth date not known - killed by indians circa 1795 in Ohio County, West Virginia), who Denver and others have concluded was never married. He bought 400 acres in Fayette County, Pennsylvania on February 4, 1794 which was sold for taxes on December 10, 1822. Denver speculates that if the story that George was killed by Indians in 1795 is true, then the reason for the sale of his land in 1822 must have been his failure to return from West Virginia and pay his taxes.

Henry Yoho (born 18 miles from Winchester, Virginia 1752 - died March 12, 1845), married to Catherine Baker (born circa 1761 - died circa 1826) and lived at Fish Creek, Marshall County, West Virginia; Monongalia County, West Virginia; and Tyler County, West Virginia. Henry was a private in in the Revolutionary War from 1776-77. Henry and Catherine had seven children: George Yoho, Mary Yoho Garner, Nancy Ann Yoho Whykert (see the story on the Great Horse Race), Elizabeth Yoho Brown, Rebecca Yoho Gatts, Margaret Yoho Twibell and Rachel Yoho Buchanan. (note: Catherine Baker was the twin sister of Margaret Baker who married Peter Yoho listed above.)

Prudence Yoho Parsons (birth and death dates not known) is believed to have married Vincent Parsons. (note: conflicting Parson's family research concludes that Prudence was the wife of either William or Henry Parsons, who was the father of Vincent Parsons). They were married at a late age, and it appears from records that they did not have any children.

Jacob Yoho (born July 8, 1765 - died August 24, 1851 in Guernsey County, Ohio), married to Margaret Dailey (born January 12, 1775 - died August 1, 1846). Jacob brought his family from Vintondale (Cambria County, Pennsylvania) and went to Noble Co., Ohio (now Guernsey Co., Ohio), Wayne Township where they settled on Wills Creek in 1808. They had twelve children: James Yoho, Jacob Yoho, Mary Yoho Carpenter, Barbara Yoho Hague, Elizabeth Yoho Watson, Ellen Yoho Watson, John Yoho (see the story on Benjamin Franklin Yoho), Sarah Yoho Wilson, Margaret Yoho Gilmore, Nancy Yoho Morgan, William Henry Yoho and Peter Yoho.

Barbara Yoho Bradford (born February 23, 1765 - died March 10, 1816 in Greene County, Pennsylvania), married to James Bradford (born January 1, 1754 - died April 18, 1822). They had ten children: John Bradford, Robert Bradford, James Bradford, Jacob Bradford, Henry Bradford, William Bradford, Mary Bradford Pethtel, Margaret Bradford Bowers, Barbara Bradford Lemley, Ann Bradford Patterson. (note: Some confusion exists; Barbara may have been the granddaughter of John Yoho and Susanna instead of their daughter.)

From this original Yoho family we can all trace our roots. Although some of the information may not be entirely accurate it is the best picture that we have of our ancestors, where they came from and how they were (and we are) related. If anyone reading this summary of the Yoho history can add to our information regarding the Yoho family, we would love to hear from you and will include your information in next year's newsletter.

1993 Yoho Reunion Review

June19, 1993 —It was a beautiful and hot day — the type of day that you wish for when you are planning an outdoor event such as a reunion (not like the weather at the 1992 Yoho Reunion which was downright cold.)

Yohos from as far away as South Lyon, Michigan and Norfolk, Virginia and as close as New Martinsville, Proctor and Knob Fork began arriving around eleven o'clock in the morning.

The reunion officially got underway at noon with a prayer by Millie Yoho and with a great meal which was provided by everyone who attended. After the meal introductions were made, and a short meeting of the Yoho Family Association was held.

A table of old pictures, genealogy and other items of interest was displayed and many a good tale was told. In addition, a silent auction was held where individuals secretly recorded their bids for various items with the high bidder receiving the item.

The first annual Yoho Signature Game was held. The object was to get the signatures of 29 different people who fit various categories. Some of the categories were, "Get the signature of a person who ... lives on Rines Ridge? ... married a Yoho? ... has attended at least 10 Yoho Reunions? ... who shot a bear? (we all know Sullivan shot the bear) ... traveled the farthest to come to the 1993 Yoho Reunion?" Games for the children attending were enjoyed by all.

Prizes were awarded to various people in attendance: youngest in attendance, Allison Hall, the great granddaughter of Truman and Ethel Yoho (come on Yohos —Allison has won this award two years in a row -- we need a new winner for this years reunion); oldest in attendance, although she is very "Young", Eulah Shank Young who was 89 years old; couple attending married the longest, Truman and Ethel Yoho; and Yohos traveling from the farthest to attend, tie between John and Sallie Miller (Norfolk, Virginia) and Eleanor and Earl Fulton (Lyon, Michigan).

Thanks go out to all of you who attended the 1993 Yoho Reunion. We hope to see you at this years Reunion!

THE GREAT HORSE RACE

Editor's Note: This story was submitted by Joan Wykert Jukes of Greeley, Colorado and was written for a KLZ radio program "Inside Story" (A much longer version of the story can be found in the book, "Into the Sunset" by George C. Ball). Frank Theodore (Dode) Wykert's and Ben Wykert's great grandmother was Nancy Ann Yoho Wykert, who was the daughter of Henry Yoho and Catherine Baker Yoho.

It is uncertain how the "Great Horse Race" came about, other than the fact that it was sponsored by the Denver Post (Denver Newspaper), with the winner to receive a prize of $500. It has been suggested that the event probably grew out of the age-old controversy as to which horse had the greater qualities of endurance and speed . . . the Western Bronc or the Eastern Thoroughbred. Somehow, before the thing was done and over, the honor of the States of Colorado and Wyoming seemed to be at stake. At any rate, the Post announced the 500 mile race and began a vigorous advertising campaign for entries in May of 1908.

The Wykert brothers, Dode and Ben, were operating a livery barn in Severance, Colorado. Both being avid horsemen, they were intrigued by the race. The decision was made to enter, and in preparation they paid $100 to the Carleton family west of Ault, Colorado for a chunky little blue roan named "Sam." It was agreed that Dode would ride Sam in the race, and the horse and rider worked out daily for a month preceding the event. Sam was put on a low hay and heavy oats diet, and by race time he was as hard as nails. Of course, this same routine was being duplicated throughout the Rocky Mountain region. D.H. Vance was another entry from northern Colorado; there were two entries from Brighton; another from Erie; and even Denver sent two riders. Pre-race publicity seems to have favored a Cody, Wyoming horse named "Teddy," ridden by Charles Workman. Teddy appears to have had the backing of such notables as Charles Irwin, Buffalo Bill Cody and other comparatively wealthy horse enthusiasts. With Wyoming patriots backing "Teddy" and Coloradoans staunchly backing "Sam" you had the makings of a good horse race.

Feeling ran pretty high in Colorado and Wyoming over the "Great Horse Race" back in 1908. Although there were many entries in the 500 mile race, in the public opinion the contest was between Dode Wykert on "Sam,"Colorado's favorite entrant, and Charles Workman on "Teddy," Wyoming's favorite son. It is incidental that the original starting point was to be Ogden, Utah, but Utah's governor would have no part of it, so the starting point was moved to Evanston, Wyoming.

Cody, Wyoming, the home place of the horse, Teddy, commissioned F.H. Barrow to go to Denver and spread around $3,000 at the best odds available. Through newspaper interviews, Mr. Barrow expressed the confidence Wyoming folks had in Teddy's ability to walk away with the race and pointed pridefully to Teddy's performance in daily 50 mile workouts. As further assurance of the conditioning of horse and rider, Workman rode Teddy all the way from Cody to the starting point in Evanston — about 500 miles. Perhaps he would have done better to have rested the horse. We know from past accounts that there were 25 official entrants at starting time, with horses weighing from under 900 pounds to almost 1100 pounds and riders that scaled from 160 pounds to one "light weight" from Littleton that tipped the beam at 223 pounds! The nearer to post time, the higher the fever mounted. Speeches and toasts were made wherever horsemen gathered; betting went hot and heavy, and it seemed that the competitive spirit of the Old West was re-born.

A Denver Post special train carried contestants, horses and spectators to the crowded little southwestern Wyoming city, and the Union Pacific railroad established watering stations along the race route. The toughest stretch was through the Red Desert between Rock Springs and Rawlins. According to the contest rules, riders were to register, rest and feed their horses every fifty miles. Evanston treated all entries royally and in true western fashion. The day dawned bright at Evanston, Wyoming on Saturday, May 30, 1908. Wyoming Governor, Marshall Hadsell, read aloud the rules of the event, and riders departed on the epic race with shouts and shots ringing in their ears.

Sam, Teddy, Rose, and Sultan of Sulu were pretty familiar names around the Rocky Mountain Region the day that the "Great Horse Race" got under way, back in 1908. Those four horses along with 21, others took off in a cloud of dust from Evanston, Wyoming for the 500 mile race to Denver. Thirteen of the entries were either full or part "thoroughbred", while the other twelve were the so-called "western broncs."

As we've already established, the favorites were the Colorado bronc entry, Sam, and Wyoming thoroughbred, Teddy. It looked like Teddy would pitch his rider, Charles Workman, since he went on several wild bucking sprees the first few miles out. Colorado's hopeful, Dode Wykert, was content to lay back in the pack, since he constantly gained confidence in the way his mount, Sam, obviously surpassed the competition. Workman, known to ride a heavy hand, pushed the gallant Teddy over 50 miles the first day. True, he left the closest competition many miles behind, but Teddy was unquestionablyweakened by the terrific pace. After the first hundred miles, many riders were in trouble and began to drop out - two at Rawlins, one at Wamsutter, one at Granger, etc. For some odd reason, Workman and Teddy went more than 20 miles out of their way near Medicine Bow, somehow wandering off the well-traveled road. Still, the majestic Teddy led the race into Laramie.

When Dode Wykert rode into Laramie, the leaders were in the Tie Siding vicinity. It was here that a Colorado representative was supposed to have failed in an attempt to load and ship one of the contesting horses by rail to Cheyenne. It was between Laramie and Cheyenne that the Colorado horse, Sam, displayed his real power, and Dode Wykert rode him hard, knowing full well the psychological advantage of beating Workman and Teddy into the big town. Over a hundred riders, including Governor Hadsell, met Dode at the Cheyenne city limits and escorted him into town. The streets of Cheyenne were lined for the event, but not all the sentiments were with the tough rider and the well-conditioned Sam. Dode picked up $125 from a supporter for leading the race at that point. On June 4, 1908 the Wyoming Tribune headline read, "Sam leads into Cheyenne," adding "the sensation of the day was the wonderful ride by Wykert on Sam, a Colorado bronc, who at last reports was 15 or 20 miles behind the leader when they arrived in Laramie last evening." So it is was evident that Dode Wykert was riding a pretty smart race!

When the remaining contestants reached Cheyenne in the "Great Horse Race" of 1908, all horses were given a thorough checkup. It is interesting to note that the starting field of 25 had narrowed down to five by the time Cheyenne was reached, and four of those five were broncs. Since the object of the race was supposedly to determine which horse had the greater endurance, the bronc or the thoroughbred, it looked as if a precedent had already been established.

Both Dode Wykert and Charles Workman were still in the race, and nobody doubted that the big battle was between these two. However, all agreed that Workman was in trouble and the gallant thoroughbred, Teddy, was visibly weakening. Four riders, including Wykert, bedded down for the night at the well-known Cheyenne livery barn. Workman was permitted to take Teddy to the stable of a backer for the night. Apparently, Workman decided to violate his verbal agreement and slipped out of Cheyenne shortly after midnight. Flour had been sprinkled along the route to guide the wily rider in the dark. However, somebody aroused the sleeping Dode, told him what was taking place, and in minutes, Wykert and Sam were tearing out of Cheyenne in pursuit. In two hours, four riders were at Carr Station, and Workman realized that his plot had failed, so he rested. It was here that the Colorado supporters pulled their trick. Knowing how young Workman feared Dode's taking the lead, they moved Sam out of sight and sent a "Wykert-sized" rider racing out of town. At the same time, somebody obligingly tipped off Workman, who quickly saddled up the wary Teddy and streaked off after the "substitute Wykert."

Workman finally caught up with the trickster and only then did he realize he had been properly duped. The real Wykert followed later at a leisurely pace, still saving Sam for a driving finish. Ault, Colorado was expecting the riders sometime Saturday morning and many had stayed up all night in anticipation. When Workman rode in at 3:45 a.m. he was greeted by much of the potato town's populace. A bronco named Jaybird was close behind, and Wykert and Sam jogged in at about 4'oclock. By the time they reached Eaton, Wykert was riding easily along with the leaders. Between Eaton and Greeley, Teddy supporters in an automobile took the dusty road in front of Wykert and Sam and refused to give them clear way, apparently with the idea of choking them out of the race. After a while of this, Wykert removed the obstacle by riding up close and carefully aiming a monstrous six gun. The autoists suddenly recalled a pressing engagement elsewhere!

The anti-climax of the finish of the race leaves one wondering what it was all about. Friday we left our rapidly diminishing field approaching Greeley with the favorites, Wykert and Workman, still in the running. The remaining horses were thoroughly examined, and Jaybird was ordered out of the race by the attending veterinarians. Thus, only Sam, Teddy and three other broncs were left, with Teddy so weak he could barely stand. On the leg between Greeley and Fort Lupton, Teddy was given a pep up shot every few miles. The tired Wykert and Sam knew full well that victory was now just a matter of time and a little more endurance. At Fort Lupton, Teddy was given a ration of whiskey and quinine, under the auspices of the humane officers, before a crowd of 500. Wykert backers protested, but still felt confident since the little blue roan bronc, Sam, had received no stimulant of any sort and was still in amazingly good condition. It was in the Brighton-Henderson area that the big blow-off came when the race officials, whoever they were, suddenly declared the race a draw and all bets off! Wykert and Workman were ordered to walk their horses, now declared unfit for further competition, the rest of the way into Denver and cross the finish line together.

The entire region was in an uproar. Oaths filled the air, as did accusations that the bets of the "big money" boys were slanted at the official, who turned deaf ears to the protestations and had the ruling enforced. The pair walked their horses into Denver - led by a 1908 automobile. Thousands lined the roadside to get a look at the men and their amazing horses. As the procession turned on Champa and moved down the street to the finish line in front of the Denver Post, Wykert and Sam tried to pass the car. The driver prevented their first effort, but as they neared the finish, 25,000 spectators got a thrill when Wykert neatly out-maneuvered the leading automobile and Sam scooted across the line "First!" Five-hundred twenty three miles in less than seven days - Clipper, Dex and Bluebell, all broncs were judged second, third and fourth places. The reception was tremendous! Dode Wykert was officially declared Colorado's greatest horseman. The bronc, Sam, was easily in the best condition, so the Wykert brothers picked up the $300 "best condition" award. Dode also received a $500 silver-trimmed saddle, two pairs of boots, a ladies riding outfit, a ladies expensive plumed hat and many other gifts. Sam's own personal reward was the rare privilege of grazing on the State Capitol lawn the following day.

Post race feelings ran pretty high, and Denver papers were publicly burned in the streets of Ault, and even a boycott of Denver products was declared in effect.

This is the story of the "Great Horse Race."

Benjamin Frankin Yoho of Decatur County, Kansas

Editor's Note: This article was submitted by Denver Yoho of Galipollis, Ohio. However, the family information of Benjamin Franklin Yoho was provided by his descendants, Tressa Yoho Ballard of Enid, Oklahoma and Opal Jones Ray of Lakeside, California.

Benjamin Franklin Yoho was born Oct. 1, 1836, likely in Guernsey County, Ohio, and was the son of John Yoho and Prudence Wilson Yoho. His grandfather and grandmother were Jacob Yoho (1765-1851) and Margaret Dailey Yoho (1775-1846).

As the story has been told, Benjamin was preparing to go west on the Ohio River on a flatboat around 1856. His childhood sweetheart, Matilda Anderson, who was born August 28, 1839, approached him crying and said that she wanted to go with him. He decided to take her with him, and they were married in Ringold County, Iowa on July 23, 1857. Records show that they were still in Ringold County in 1859, but moved thereafter to Washington County, Nebraska and lived there from 1860 to 1875. Benjamin and Matilda then moved to Mitchell, Kansas in 1875 and lived there until1879. Records show that they homesteaded 160 acres in section 6, township 4, range 26 in Decatur County, Kansas on February 28, 1879. They received title to the property on March 3, 1884 and lived on this property for the rest of their lives.

Benjamin and Matilda had eight children born to their marriage with one child dying at the age of two. Benjamin died on May 28, 1893 and was buried in Toronto, Kansas. Matilda died on November 11, 1906 and was buried in Jennings, Kansas.

Their second child, Thomas Jefferson Yoho, was born August 6, 1860 in Washington County, Nebraska. He made application to homestead as a single man in the same area as his father and mother. However, he did not make the required improvements and therefore did not get title to the property.

Thomas' nephew, William Howard "Bill" Yoho, who was born in 1912, recalled that Thomas would visit his brother John, Bill's father, on occasion when Bill was a small boy. He said that Thomas would never come into the house and that Thomas and John would visit in the barn. Thomas was always mounted on a fine, above-average horse. The last time Bill saw him he was riding a big, beautiful, black horse that looked as if he could out run any horse in the county.

John Yoho, who was the fifth child of Benjamin and Matilda, was born on April 4, 1868 in Washington County, Nebraska. He married Isabel McCartney on February 27, 1890. Isabel was born on March 1, 1866 in Coffey County, Kansas and died in Woodson County, Kansas on April 1, 1923.

John and Isabel raised ten children who were all living when John died on April 1, 1937 at LeRoy, Coffey County, Kansas. This family currently has an annual reunion in Coffey County, Kansas.

Hugh Yoho Comments on his Summer Trip to West Virginia

Editor's Note: Hugh Yoho of Sunland, California has done extensive research of the Yoho family. Following are excerpts from a letter Hugh wrote to Robert Coffield commenting on his summer trip to W. Virginia.

The visit that I had with Bob and LeMoyne Coffield, Denver Yoho and Sullivan and Millie Yoho this past year was certainly the highlight of my trip to West Virginia.

For the first time in my life I was able to personally discuss our family with relatives who share my uncommon interest in the history of the Yohos, and I thoroughly enjoyed every moment, as did my aunt, Eleanor Parsons Snyder, who accompanied me on my trip to New Martinsville. The story I told at that gathering, of a California bear raiding our camp in the California mountains, paled by comparison with Sullivan Yoho's wonderful account of his encounter with a West Virginia bear.

Although I haven't lived in West Virginia since the early 1950's , I have never lost the feelings of strong family ties with those relatives who continue to live there.

JOHN WILL GODDARD

The family of John Will Goddard was one of the earlier ones to settle in Wetzel County In 1883, John Will (1857-1937), son of John William and Elizabeth Yoho Goddard, married Amanda Belle Cozart (1862-1907), daughter of James and Sarah Anna Nice Cozart. John and Amanda had seven children and lived in Proctor District where John farmed several hundred acres. Sometime after Amanda's death, John Will married Jane Cecil. This marriage was childless. John was buried in the Goddard Cemetery near Newdale with his first wife Amanda.

Albert Russel (1890-1961) married Anna Lou Henry. He farmed, but was also the overseer of the Wetzel County Poor Farm and a County Commissioner for many years. The two had no children of their own, though many foster children lived with them over the years.

Dessie Lou (1893-1973) married John Wesley Smith, who worked as a farmer and teamster in Wetzel County. Sometime after 1920, they moved to Marshall County and, in 1937, they resettled in Ohio where both died and were buried. They had Hazel, Alice, Harry, Kathleen, Charles, Wilda, John, Helen, Robert, and James.

Harry L. (1896-1908), John & Amanda's fifth child, died not long after his mother and and was buried in the same cemetery.

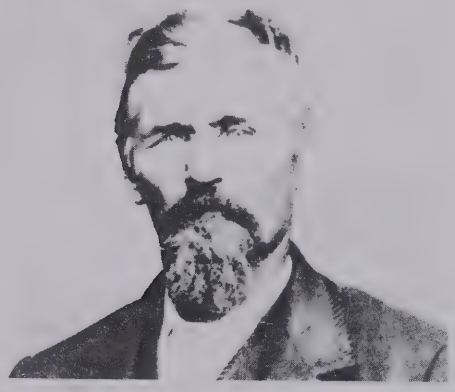
THE ALLENS

The story of the Allens begins with brothers, John and William, "natives of Ireland," who became citizens in Philadelphia in 1798 after first emigrating from County Cork to the Isle of Aran. Both owned property: John listed "Occupation: drayman." When they were soon driven to what is now West Virginia by epidemic, the Quakers paid their taxes until 1902.

John (born about 1764) and his wife Rebecca settled at Laurel Point near Proctor. Their son William (1800-1875,) was a farmer and lay minister, "Preacher Billy." After marrying Sarah Brown (1804-1884,) in 1822, he fathered 14 children. The couple now lie in the family plot at Laurel Point, land owned and maintained by a relative, Olin Hall.

Their children were Rebecca, (married Joseph Wood;) Rhoda, (married John Moore,); Jane, (married Conrad Fair,) Sarah, (married Joseph Cox;) John, (married Mary Haney;)



William Brown Allen 1839-1893

Margaret, (married John Walker;) Elisabeth (married Aaron Morgan;) William Brown, (married Susannah McBride;) James Millison, (married Eliza Burton;) Isaac, (married Margaret Yoho;) and four who died in infancy; Andrew; Samuel; and twins Thomas and David.

Susannah (1832-1897), an attractive, red-haired teacher of Irish heritage born in Pennsylvania, was teaching at Denver Heights when she met William Brown Allen (1839-1893). She, her brother Wesley, and sister Margaret, or Jane, followers of Alexander Campbells' Christian Church (Disciples,) studied at Bethany College.

William served in the Union Army. Susannah endured wartime hardships on the Silver Hill farm, where their home stood until recently. When William came home from the war, Susannah rode to Proctor to meet him.

A Silver Hill store owner, William never turned the hungry away, but allowed them to work for groceries. He and Susannah's children were Sarah; Margaret; Joseph, (married Mary Cook;) twins, James Newton (Newt) and Samuel Curtis; Rhoda, (married Nick Parsons); Thomas, (married Della Pyles, and later Emma Howard.) and Jane who married W.P. Furnell, after his death, Robert Coffield. William and Susannah are buried at the Joliffe Cemetery, Silver Hill.

Their twins married sisters in 1886, Mary Belle and Sarah Elizabeth Lowe, daughters of Samuel and Isabelle Coffield Lowe. (Sam was red-haired, Irish, and played the violin; Isabelle was a noted quilter.) Young Curtis died a few months after the wedding of typhoid fever. A son, Curtis, later a Moundsville High School teacher who married Maude Pierce, was born after his father's death.

Newton (1866-1941) and Belle (1866-1947), lived on the Allen farm at Silver Hill. He was a Wetzel County Commissioner, president of the Wetzel County Court, and wrote farm leases for the Hope Gas Company. He was a handsome, dignified man, kindly and respected. Belle "set a fine table" for gas and oil company boarders and "hired hands." Her dry Irish wit was undimmed by hard work and tragedy: her motto; "Everything works out for the best."

Three children died young: Samuel Curtis; Anna Belle; and Jessie, by igniting her dress at the fireplace. Surviving were Harold Roy; Margaret Jane; Webster; and Thelma.

The parents are buried at New Martinsville.

Roy, a farmer and county road worker, married Ruby Mason. Their children were Maxine, Wilma, Beulah, Donald, Robert and Bruce. Retiring to Niles, Ohio, Ruby died in 1965; Roy in 1968. They are at Joliffe Cemetery.

Maggie attended West Liberty College, teaching until her marriage to William Blaine Wayt. Will taught 35 years; they lived on Roberts Ridge, Marshall County, before retiring to Moundsville. Their children: Mary Lorna, who married Harman W. Williams; Dr. William Allen Wayt; and Margaret. Will died in 1956; Maggie, 1973. They and Harman are at Halycon Hills Cemetery, Marshall County.

William and Harman were combat veterans of World War II. Harman died in 1971: Lorna lives in Moundsville. William, a graduate of West Virginia and Ohio State Universities, retired from Ohio State University as professor emeritus of the Agricultural Economics Department. An international economics consultant, he died in Kenya in 1982. Married to Gladys Ballard of Littleton, he had two adopted sons, Chris and Gerry, of Columbus, Ohio.

Margaret, a graduate of West Virginia University, married Frank Crutcher DeBolt of Logan County. Their children are Frank, Brian, and Jennifer.

Webster Allen married Bessie Smith, a teacher, of another pioneer Proctor family. They lived at Silver Hill until retirement in Moundsville.

Thelma, a graduate of West Liberty, is a retired Wetzel County teacher. She married Arvel Fox, a farmer and state employee. Their daughter Carole married William Burroughs, and lives in Florida with daughters Alisa and Judy.

Arvel Allen Burroughs lived with his grandparents until his death in 1979. The couple plan to retire soon from their Doolin Route, New Martinsville, farm, to Moundsville. - Margaret Wayt DeBolt

THE ALLEN FAMILY

Our branch of the Allen family had its beginning in America in Philadelphia, PA., where our John Allen bought land in the Southwark District, March 3, 1798. John was a Drayman. A John Allen, Drayman, was naturalized in Philadelphia the 16th day of February, 1798. Family legend says the Allens were from County Cork.

John Allen left Philadelphia during a Yellow Fever Epidemic and settled in Ohio Co. VA in the early 1800's. By 1820 he was in the Proctor area of Wetzel County. He built a home about 4½ miles from the mouth of Proctor Creek. Legend says he knitted his own socks. Many of his descendants were known as the "Allen giants". Several of the Allen men and women have stood 6 feet and over.

John Allen's wife, we believe, was Rebecca. They had at least four children. "Old Billy Allen" who performed many marriages in Wetzel County was one of their sons. William Allen married Sarah Brown, d/o Andrew Brown in Ohio Co. in 1822. They were members of the Christian Church and owned a farm at the top of Anderson Run Hill on Highland Ridge in Proctor District. William and Sarah were parents of 14 children and are buried in the Laurel Point Cemetery.

Another son was John Allen, my 2nd great grandfather. John married Rebecca Goddard, d/o Francis and Hannah Goddard of Greene Co. PA. John and Rebecca had a family of 12 children. Many of their descendants are still living in Wetzel and Marshall Counties. John died in the Proctor area in 1852.

Several years after the death of John, Rebecca married William Coen in Wetzel County. William was the s/o Isaac and Susannah Coen. In the early 1870's William and Rebecca migrated to Brown County, Indiana, where Rebecca's son William Allen was living. William Coen and Rebecca are both buried in the New Bellsville Cemetery. William Coen was highly regarded by my great grandfather, William Allen, as he named my grandfather, Coen Allen, for him.

William Allen came to Brown County, Indiana, during the Civil War and after the death of his first wife, Mary Jane Goddard, d/o Jared Nelson Goddard and Martha Garner, both of Wetzel County. William and Mary Jane were second cousins. In Brown County William married Melissa Jane Truex, d/o Henry and Saloma (More) Truex. Melissa was a granddaughter of Benjamin and Catherine (Sams) Truex of Belmont County, Ohio. Other children of John and Rebecca (Goddard) Allen settled in Ohio, Iowa and Missouri.

Jane Allen who married Ephraim Hall in

William Coen and Rebecca Goddard Allen Coen

1830 in Ohio County, Va, was a d/o John Allen who settled on Proctor Creek. A descendant of Jane and Ephraim, Olan Hall, resides on the "Old Billy Allen" homesite today. Jane is also buried in the Laurel Point Cemetery. Another daughter is shown on census records for John, but, as yet, is unidentified.

Although it has been many years since our

Allen branch left the hills of West Virginia, we are very proud of our West Virginia heritage. Shirley (Allen) Hannaford

J. N. ALLEN FAMILY

Our Allen Family lived on the Silver Hill farm for more than 100 years. My grandparents, William Brown and Susan McBride Allen, owned a large tract of land in the Silver Hill area. My grandmother, great grandmother and Aunt Jane stayed on the farm while Grandpa served in the Civil War. Later the farm was given to their sons and daughters. This part of the farm was inherited by my parents. My parents, J. N. and Mary Belle (Lowe) Allen moved there shortly after their marriage in 1884. They lived there until their deaths in 1941 and 1947, respectively. My brother, Webster Allen, sold the farm in 1979.

My father was a farmer, a notary, deputy assessor and lease man for the Hope Natural Gas Co. He was County Commissioner from 1928 to 1934. During this time the road was blacktopped from New Dale to the Marshall County line.

My mother, "Aunt Belle", as she was lovingly called, was one of the best cooks in the county. No one was ever turned away without a meal.

The Allen family attended church at Miller's Chapel, which was dedicated 30 September 1888, with a crowd of approximately 600 people. My husband, Arvel and I attend services there.

In the late 1800's and early 1900's, Silver Hill was a "boom village" due to the oil fields. The Tri State Researcher, says there were more than a hundred families then.

Some of the business places were: two stores owned by Morris Rulong and Clarence Yeater, a post office, an undertaker, (who was my uncle, Tom Allen), a doctor, (some of the doctors were, Rinehart, Richmond and Coffield). This Dr. Coffield was the father of Drs. Terrell and LeMoyne Coffield. Dr. Bridgeman of New Martinsville, had his summer office there. Ora Richmond taught Summer Normal 1908 or 1909.

Land was purchased from Carneys in 1873 and a one room school built. E. B. Carney and Arla Miller were teachers there. Miss Miller taught the last term, 1907-08.

In 1908, a two room school was built on the hill above Silver Hill. The one acre of ground was purchased from E. B. & Julia Carney for $100.00. Some of the earlier teachers were: E. B. Carney, Nancy Richmond, Maggie Allen, (my sister), N. B. Wayt, (my future brother in law), Encil Knapp and N. J. Stern. Consolidation closed this school in 1958-59.

Some other occupations were: the barber, William Smith; veterinarian, N. U. McBride, blacksmiths, Bern Meyers & James Yoho. "Daddy" Crawford operated the sawmill; Jasper Baker, the shoe cobbler; Sarah Jane Ramsey, the carpet weaver; John Darnus, an itinerant "tin tinker"; Flora Behemr, Mrs. James Yoho and Lucy Ramsey were the telephone operators and Jehu Johnson was the saloon keeper.

All that remains now is Miller's Chapel with many improvements and two beautiful dwellings made from the M.E. parsonage and two room school, a new U.F.D. building and many memories.

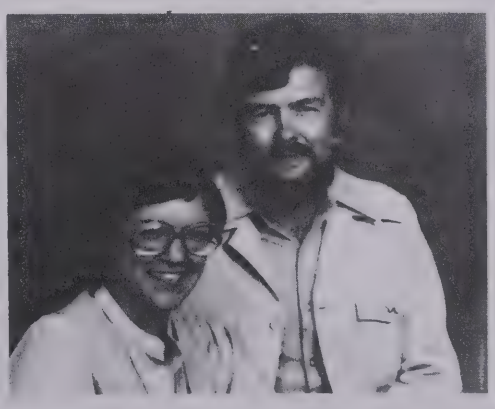
I have pleasant memories from my school days there as pupil and teacher for eleven years. I finished my teaching career as teaching principal at Grandview Grade School for eight years. I retired 14 June 1968, after teaching 38.1 years. Submitted by Thelma Allen Fox

TOM & SUZY ALLEN

I was born in Ripley, Jackson County, on January 7, 1945, the youngest of six children of Harry W. and Nannie M. Smith Harper. My given name is Phyllis Ann but I prefer my life-long nickname, Suzy. My paternal grandparents were Charles "Bud" and Mary Droddy Harper of Roane County. Some of my earliest memories are of visiting my grandparents on Ambler Ridge and attending the Harper, Hunt, and Taylor Reunion at Mt. Moriah Church. My maternal grandparents were Clark G. and Cora Combs Smith of Kanawha County.

Thomas Ray Allen was born May 2, 1941, in Millstone, Calhoun County, the second of four children. His parents, Doniver M. and Marjorie E. Roush Allen, later settled in Ravenswood. Tom's maternal grandmother is Mary E. Rardin Roush and his maternal grandfather was Raymond Roush. Little did I know in 1965 when we moved to New Martinsville that Tom's ancestral roots were in Wetzel County. Thanks to his aunt, Mrs. Lewis (Gretta) Allen of Pt. Pleasant, WV, his direct line of genealogy is being researched and compiled. His paternal ancestry includes: Grandparents, James Simpson (b. 1879) and Bertha Wilson Allen; great grandparents; Isaac (b. 1843) and Margaret Yoho Allen; great-great grandparents, William (b. 1800) and Sarah Brown Allen; and great-great-great grandparents, John (b. 1764) and Rebecca Allen.

Tom and I were married December 2, 1961, in Jackson County while he was still serving a four year hitch in the Navy. Our first child, Katrina was born November 5, 1962. At that time, Tom was aboard ship in the Mediterranean Sea. Melissa Dawn was born September 21, 1965, one day after Tom began employment at Mobay. About one month later we moved to New Martinsville. On January 9,



Tom and Suzy Allen

1969, Thomas Paul made his way into the world. All three children were born in Jackson County.

I have worked four years as Home Economics Program Assistant at WVU Cooperative Extension Service, Wetzel County office. One of my major responsibilities is working with the Extension Homemakers organization. I am blessed with a job that I enjoy and have the opportunity to continue to grow and learn while I'm working with people I love.

We have come to love and appreciate the rugged terrain of Wetzel County. We are especially fond of Spring. I love the blankets of trillium covering the hillsides and Tom believes no gourmet delight can compare with the first mess of young, tender ramps that have been freshly dug (that's half the fun!).

Our plans for the future include settling on American Ridge and enjoying the country life. We call Wetzel County "Home." Submitted by: Suzy Allen

THE ALLEY HISTORY

Our ancestors came early into Green District, prior to 1850. Our second great grandparents being, Rev. John Alley, 1800-1893, born Greene Co., PA, son of John and Agnes Alley. He married about 1824 to Jane Hennen, 1809-1852, daughter of Thomas Hennen and Ann Woodruff, both of Greene Co.

John and Jane lived in the vicinity of Lynn Camp, Marshall Co., where he was a minister in the Methodist Church. They reared eight children. Their eldest son, Thomas, 1826-1908, married Mary Steel in 1852. She was a daughter of Isaac Steel and Sarah Cumberledge. Soon after their marriage they moved to a 184 acre farm in what is now Alley Addition, Pine Grove. Here Thomas was a farmer but also kept active in the community life being instrumental in many of the town's activities. He served as constable and was president of the school board.

Their elder son, Isaac 1856-1943, married in 1887 to Louisa Jane Headley, 1864-1894. Louisa died young leaving four children who were reared by their grandparents, Thomas and Jane.

Our father, John Friend, 1891-1981, was the younger child. He married Alice Mildred Hawkins in Pine Grove, 25 June 1919. Alice was a d/o Ralph Hawkins and Sarah Daugherty. They made their home on a part of the original farm. There are four children: Norman Gregory, who died as infant; Jack Roger; Wallace Neal and Evelyn Lucille. Father had a slow easy-going way about him that made him a host of life-long friends. He never seemed to get ruffled over anything, taking it all in his stride with a smile and a sparkle to his eyes. During the last few years Rosenberger and had 4 children.

A son of James Alexander was James Lee, one of six children. Clarence of Moundsville is the son of James Lee. Submitted by Clarence Allen
